A WORD FROM THE PASTOR

This past Sunday, Rev. Tom Duley gave a wonderful sermon on Holy Communion as an opportunity for each and every one of us to recognize and then join in to the abundant living that Jesus show us in his life and teaching. Next Sunday, I will be preaching on the fifth dimension of abundant living: praying always.

Praying always, or "praying without ceasing" as it is referred to in Scripture, is a difficult concept for us to take in. Prayer seems to be a time_limited event. There is a beginning (Dear God...) and there is an end (...Amen). Early Christians had prayers such as these. They would often pray the prayers associated with Judaism such as the Shema (Deuteronomy 6:4-9).

However, prayer is also understood in a radically different way. Instead of thinking about prayer in these formal and formatted ways, you can also understand prayer as an ongoing conversation with God, no matter what you are doing. I once encountered a pastor who would pray every morning for his wife, for his family and over his church. Each and every day, his hope was that he would treat each and every person he encountered with the love and grace of God. Praying each day helped him to remember that his words and his actions could either be used for God's purposes or they could be...well...just words and actions with no clear purpose and no clear direction.

If you have ever seen Fiddler on the Roof, you have seen Tevya live out this ongoing conversation with God - seeking help and assistance for those times in our lives where there is no clear pattern of what to do next. We must continue to listen and search for God's voice and God's way forward...even if our lips are not moving.

Mike

Sympathy of the congregation is extended to Megan Wise in the death of her grandmother, Lelia Sellari, on July 10 also, to Neal Matthews in the death of his mother Margaret Ivey Neal on July 5 in Marianna, Florida..... Our prayers are with the families in their time of sorrow.

Congratulations to Jason and Meredith Colquitt on the birth of daughter, Mary Wynn, on July 3. Shawn and Debbie Smith are the maternal grandparents.

Counseling: Remarriage following a divorce or death of a spouse is a major decision and a big step. There's a lot to think about. Steve Sweatt has many years of experience as a professional, licensed counselor and marriage and family therapist. He is also an ordained minister. He can help us to be sure that we've thought things through carefully and are ready to take that step. Steve is affiliated with United Counseling, a ministry of the North Alabama Conference, and he comes to the satellite counseling office here at the church located below the chapel. Call 824-8320 for an appointment. It's confidential, convenient, and affordable. Weekend and evening appointments can be arranged.

Thank You: The flowers were beautiful and I am still enjoying them. Thanks so much for the thoughtfulness—for the home visit from Ann Gilliland. I'm always grateful for all the friendly people at Bluff Park UMC. And now we can show our new minister who we are. My love to all of you, Sally Frederickson

Open House: Mildred Huber left her house to the church. It is for sale and an open house will be held on Sunday July 28, 2013 from 1:00 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. The location of the house at 433 Shades Crest Road .

Please plan to attend a very important and informative meeting on Sex Trafficking in Alabama. Every year, thousands of women and girls in the United States are victimized by the sex trafficking industry. Every day, girls as young as 13, are being coerced into a life where they are no longer in control. Several months ago the local news-casts presented a documentary on Sex Trafficking along I-20 in Alabama. This was a real eye opener for all of us. Everyone is welcome to this program as we learn what is being done to combat this issue. Grandparents, parents and youth all need to be aware and know what to look for. Our speaker is Tajuan McCarty, the Executive Director and Founder of WellHouse. Please invite family and friends to this important program. Dinner ($6) at 6:00 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. Program at 7:00 p.m. in the Chapel on August 12. RSVP for dinner to Sylvia ssummers@bellsouth.net or 824-9902

Need a wedding gift? A cookbook from Bluff Park would be a perfect gift. They are on sale in the narthex every Sunday.

Is God calling you to the ministry of foster care? United Methodist Children's Home, a non-profit Christian ministry caring for the abused and neglected children of Alabama, is now recruiting Christian parents to provide a stable and nurturing environment for foster children. UMCH foster parents receive free training, on-going support, and compensation. Your home could be the bridge to a child's future. Become a foster parent.

VBS MISSION PROJECTS What an outstanding group of children we had for VBS this year. We collected 279 canned goods to donate to our food pantry and the food pantry at UCC. The children also raised $450 to go toward the medical treatment of Gretchen Anderson. She is the mom of 2 of our preschool children who was diagnosed with a brain tumor in May. The children really learned a lot about who is their neighbor and how WE can be a good neighbor to the person living next door, the people living down the street, the people living across town, and people living across our world!
